The National Park Hospitality Association invites your participation in its 2016 Fall Meeting:

Inviting and Hosting National Park Visitors: Post-Centennial Efforts with a New Administration

Date: November 13-15, 2016

Location: Crystal City Marriott at Ronald Reagan Airport, 1999 Jefferson Davis Highway, Arlington, VA 22202, 703-413-5500

Theme: Inviting and Hosting National Park Visitors: Post-Centennial Efforts with a New Administration will allow national park concessioners, the NPS and others to assess likely visitor levels and expectations following major communications efforts associated with the NPS Centennial as well as review Congressional direction to the agency through appropriations and authorizing legislation. Sessions will include:

- Indepth conversations with NPS Commercial Services Team
- Discussions with Key Members of Congress and staff
- Discussions of Association Goals and Priorities for 2017 and 2018

Details: Our meeting will begin on Sunday, November 13, with an afternoon meeting of the Board of Directors, with members welcomed. At 6 PM, we’ll have an opening reception, followed by a working dinner discussing key association issues including the future of the National Parks Promotion Council. On Monday, November 14, we will depart the hotel for the U.S. Department of the Interior’s South Building Auditorium, 1951 Constitution Avenue, N.W., for a continental breakfast and a general membership meeting. At 11 AM, we will be joined at this location by key National Park Service staff, including those from the Commercial Services Program. Lunch will include topic tables and an opportunity to discuss the transition process with NPS leaders. We will continue guided dialogue with NPS officials during the afternoon, wrapping up at 5 PM. Monday evening will include an option to participate in a CONPAC session on the Hill. On Tuesday, November 15, NPHA members will meet at 8 AM in the hotel with a continental breakfast and will be prepared by staff and Lincoln Policy Group for advocacy on the Hill and back home regarding key legislation, including the Centennial bill and FY2017 appropriations.
Lodging is available at Crystal City Marriott at Ronald Reagan Airport, 1999 Jefferson Davis Highway, Arlington, VA 22202, 703-413-5500.
